

Wed. 3rd, 9:30am: Mystery Book Club

This month we are discussing "Just Watch Me" by Jeffrey Lindsay.

Wed. 3rd 5:30-7pm and again Fri. 5th 2-4pm: Computer Basics Class

This free class is perfect for anyone who knows nothing about computers or the internet. Instructor Richard May will walk you using a laptop we provide. Please RSVP for one or both dates by calling 920-295-6777. Each class will cover the same material.

Mon. 8th and again Mon. 22nd, 4-6 pm: Knitting Club

This group is for beginners to learn how to knit, and for experienced knitters to hang out. Kids are welcome. Bring your own supplies, or purchase a kit with needles and yarn for $10.

Tues. 9th, 5-7pm: Paper Crafting Club: Gelli Printing

Join our monthly club for crafting fun! Today we're using paint, paper, and stencils to create gorgeous art suitable for gift wrap, scrapbooking, card making, or framing all on its own. No talent required. No need to RSVP— just drop in.

Wed. 10th, 5-7pm: Friends Volunteer Meeting

The Friends of the Library will meet tonight to plan upcoming events, including the Cookie Walk, window decorating, Christmas Sale, and children's book giveaway. We would love for you to join us!

Tues. 16th, 4-5pm: Medicare Class

Are you confused about Medicare? Do you need some help looking at your options? Attend this free class.

Thurs. 18th, 6:30pm: Local Native American History with Julie Fleming

November is Native American Heritage Month! Fox Lake historian Julie Fleming will talk about the history of local Native American tribes and archaeology. Artifacts will be on display. No charge to attend.

Happy Thanksgiving!

The Library will be closed all day on Wed. 24th and Thurs. 25th so that staff can be with their families.

Fri. 26th: Merry Christmas In Princeton!

The Library will be open extended hours (until 7pm) to celebrate our city's annual tradition. From 4pm onwards, we will have movies, snacks, and crafts for kids. After the holiday parade on Water Street (which starts at 6pm) we will hold our traditional children's book giveaway! One gently used book will be given to each child until supplies are gone. Donations welcome!
